LANDLORD/TENANT ACTION

NOTICE OF INTENT TO APPEAL

NOW COMES _____, and hereby gives
Landlord/Tenant

Notice of intent to appeal this court's ruling of _____ to the New Hampshire Supreme Court
Date

I understand that in order to appeal to the New Hampshire Supreme Court, I must file a NOTICE OF APPEAL in that court no later than thirty (30) days from the date of the district court's written notice of judgment. If I fail to do so, the district court order will become final.

I further understand that in a landlord/tenant action, an appeal by the tenant may be dismissed if the tenant fails to make any rental payments as they become due after this notice has been filed. If the reason for possessory action was for non-payment of rent, the tenant must pay, weekly to the court, the amount of rent determined by the court. This weekly rent payment must be made on the same day of the week on which the NOTICE OF INTENT TO APPEAL was filed.
